INTERNATIONAL ART EXHIBIT OPENING

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): The public is invited to the opening of the “Icons in Transformation” exhibit Saturday at 6 p.m. at Killeen Civic and Conference Center.

Ludmila Pawlowska, internationally-acclaimed Russian-Swedish abstract expressionist, has traveled from Russia to present the exhibit. This 120-piece art collection features her contemporary work. The free exhibit will be open through June 27.

She began creating the “icons” after the sudden death of her mother. She found comfort recalling the icons she had seen in a Russian monastery and worked through her grief over a decade by creating art.
